

Frequently Asked Questions

Where does this program take place?

In the meeting room of ICC every Sunday at 1:30 p.m.

Who can I contact if I have any questions?

Sister Zareen Islam (Kitab Korner program coordinator) or Sister Frasha Hussain (ICC Library coordinator)

Who is involved in running this program?

Sister Zareen Islam is the primary coordinator and Sister Yasmeen Hussain is assistant coordinator.

How long is the program?

Kitab Korner runs for about 40 minutes every Sunday starting at 1:30 pm

Am I allowed to leave my child and go run errands?

No, this is not a babysitting program. Please read the Kitab Korner handbook thoroughly.

Will my child need to bring any supplies or snacks with them?

Paper, crayons and snacks will be provided. Please let us know if your child has any food allergies.

Is homework assigned as part of this program?

Short take-home activities are given at the end of every program, but nothing is collected or graded.*

Does the program accept donations?

Yes, we do. The Kitab Korner program is temporarily running off of donations. For more information please contact Sis. Zareen or Sis. Frasha.

Are parents allowed to check out books that have been read to their children?

Not at this time, but once a section has been covered, parents may check the book out through the ICC library.